

More about

CREATIVE COMMONS

CONDITIONS

Creative Commons is a Some Rights Reserved model that allows the creator to express exactly how they wish to allow others to use their work.

Each licence is made up of a combination of the conditions below, to indicate what may or may not be done.

Attribution (BY)

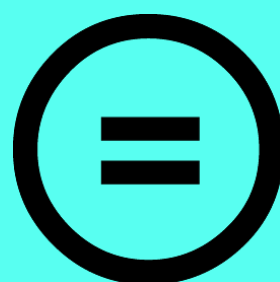

You must credit the original creator (and any other nominated parties) and link to the source.

Non-Commercial (NC)

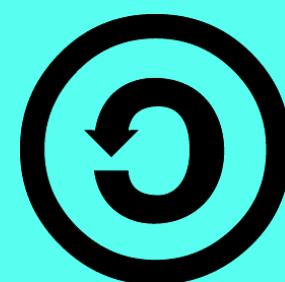

Work may be copied, distributed, displayed or performed for non-commercial purposes only.

No Derivative Works (ND)

Only verbatim copies may be distributed, displayed or performed. The work must not be adapted or changed in any way.

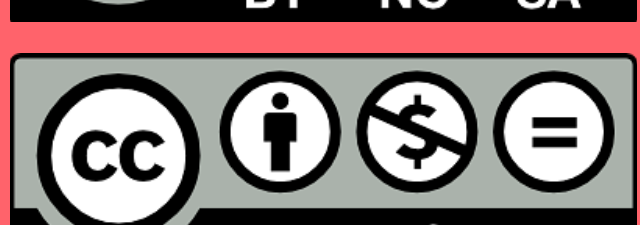

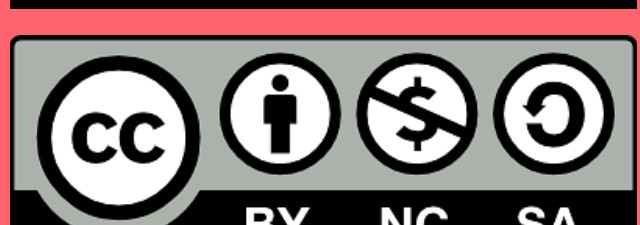

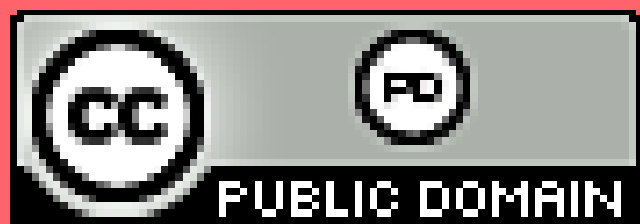

Share Alike (SA)

Work may be remixed, adapted or built upon only if it is distributed under the same licence terms that govern the original.

THE LICENCES

Most Free

Least Free

Every CC Licence allows you to:

SHARE the work

FORMAT SHIFT the work

COPY the work

Every CC Licence:

Applies WORLDWIDE

Is NON-REVOCABLE

Lasts for the DURATION of copyright

To find out more go to:
<http://www.copyright.org.au/>

Designed by @KayOddone